UC Image Service

Images for teaching, study, and research

www.imageservice.cdlib.org

The UC Image Service Is

- Centrally-distributed digital images and classroom presentation software
- Robust tools and content supporting teaching, study, and research
- Accessible to the University of California community
- Licensed and UC-owned content from archives, libraries, museums, and visual resources collections

Content in the UC Image Service

- 350,000+ high resolution, zoom-able images from AMICA, Hartill, Hoover, LUCI, MOAC, Rumsey, Saskia, SPIRO, Tebtunis
- Illustrates the arts, history, architecture, design, literature, city planning, anthropology, landscape architecture, archaeology, geography, gender, ethnic, and area studies
- Future content in the sciences, music, film studies as available

Classroom Presentation Software

- Luna Insight powerful classroom presentation tools
- One-time java client download
- Search for, view, organize, create groups for research and teaching
- Works with the Web, PowerPoint, Keynote, Blackboard, and ARTstor

UC Image Service • images for teaching, study, and research • www.imageservice.cdlib.org