

Common Knowledge Group Virtual Brown Bag

Hosted by the Direction & Oversight Committee

libraries.universityofcalifornia.edu/doc

Housekeeping

- We are recording.
- We will share our slides.
- Everyone is muted. If you would like to speak, please unmute yourself.
- If time allows, we will have a question & answer period after the presenters have finished.

What is a Common Knowledge Group?

- They provide an opportunity for people with similar interests or job functions to work together and improve systemwide and local processes.
- They allow us to collaboratively explore new territories.
- Some CKGs (such as the CKGs formerly known as Bibliographer Groups) provide feedback in areas of expertise.
- There is a lot of variety in how they're managed.

Where can I find information about CKGs?

- CKG webpage:
libraries.universityofcalifornia.edu/ckg
- Overview, expectations, current and former CKGs
- Guidelines & Administrativa
- CKG charters
- Wiki space on UCSF-hosted Confluence site
- Collaborative tools best practices

Today, we'll hear about the work being done by the following CKGs:

- Born Digital
- Instructional Design
- Interlibrary Loan
- Reference
- UC Shared Visual Resources

Intrigued by CKGs?

- Reach out to Donald Barclay (CKG liaison), to the CKG members who presented today, or to the CKGs that interest you.
- Do you want to start a CKG?
- Do you want your CKG to host a virtual brown bag?

Q & A

Thank you for attending!

Sarah Troy, outgoing CKG liaison <saraht@ucsc.edu>

Donald Barclay, incoming CKG liaison <dbarclay@ucmerced.edu>

For a full list of Common Knowledge Groups, please visit:

libraries.universityofcalifornia.edu/ckg